Basic information

Complete information available only in Polish.

The company runs it's business activities within the scope of creating investment funds and managing them, as well as within the scope of managing the portfolio of financial instruments. The company also offers investment consulting services.
The company holds relevant approvals of Polish Financial Supervision Authority to run the above-mentioned activity.
The company conducts direct distribution of participation units and investment certificates of the managed funds.

- Print
- PDF
- 235 views