Fund description

Equity index product. The aim of the subfund is to achieve exposure to technology stocks listed on the Nasdaq market with leverage 2x, which means achieving daily change of unit value correlated to double daily change of technology stock prices on the Nasdaq market. However, this subfund, the Company, or any other third party does not guarantee the achievement of the above-mentioned goal.

The subfund pursues its investment policy by investing in futures on the Nasdaq-100 index. The rest of assets is mainly invested in debt instruments and may also be invested in other financial instruments.

The subfund is characterised by a very high level of investment risk and applies the investment principles and restrictions specified by law for a closed-end investment fund.

The subfund is dedicated for informed Investors who plan to invest in a short-term or medium-term investment horizon, i.e. for a period of up to 3 years, expect investment results correlated with twice the daily price changes of shares of technology companies on the Nasdaq market and accept a very high level of investment risk associated with investments in Derivative Instruments and accept currency risk, i.e. they take into account the possibility of strong fluctuations in the value of their investments caused by, among others, the volatility of share prices and currencies, especially in the short term, including the possibility of losing a significant part of the invested funds.

The subfund should be used by Investors in periods when there is a high probability of growth in stock market indices and the Investor would like to obtain exposure to the stock market greater than 100%.
